

Rediscovering Jesus: The Servant Leader

Competition and entitlement lead to disconnection with God, disengagement in His Kingdom and disconnection from each other

Jesus shows us that in his Kingdom

1. All are welcome
2. All are fed
3. All are loved

This act of service shows:

1. The cleansing power of the cross
2. How to lead in the Kingdom of God

“Whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wants to be first must be slave of all.”(Matthew 18:43-45)

“You do not realize now what I am doing, but later you will understand.”

“A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.” (John 13:34-35)

“Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another’s feet.”

“Very truly I tell you, no servant is greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him.” (John 13:16)

“Jesus knew that the Father had put all things under his power and that he had come from God and was returning to God” (John 13:3)

What words of encouragement or challenge does he know you need to hear today?

How is Jesus inviting you to follow him as a servant leader?