

Listening To Others
Luke 24:13-35

When our dreams die, Jesus' resurrected life surprises us with hope.

Hope deferred makes a heart sick.

Prov. 13:12

Dreams

Hold fast to dreams
For if dreams die
Life is a broken-winged bird
That cannot fly.

Hold fast to dreams
For when dreams go
Life is barren field
Frozen with snow.
Langston Hughes

He initiates.

He asks good questions.

He spends time with them.

He offers His presence.

He re-stories them with Scripture.

“Intense listening is indistinguishable from love and love
heals.”

-Kenneth Blue

Their eyes were opened and they recognize Jesus.

“Meaningful conversations are essential parts of God’s ongoing rescue of us.”

- Adam McHugh

When our dreams die, Jesus' resurrected life surprises us with hope, and friends can help us recognize Him.

“We [are] learning that God’s love is not measured in circumstances, that listening to God and being listened to was deep, deep real love in and of itself.”

-Kate Merrick

Spend time with Jesus about a dream of yours that has died.
